STEVENSON NAMED

As Democratic Candidate For Vice President.

CHOSEN ON FIRST BALLOT.

Boom Started For Hon. David B. Hill In the Convention Hall.

HE TAKES PLATFORM AND DECLINES.

Incident of the Last Session of the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City—How the Various State Delegations Voted For the Candidates.

Kansas City, July 6.—The final day of the Democratic national convention broke clear and hot. The sun blazed pitilessly down through the same brilliant sky that has marked every day of convention week, and the cloudless blue sky gave no promise of relief from the intense heat. But the grateful wind which has saved the week from being intolerable did not forsake the sweltering crowds.

The crowd was not as demonstrative as that of the previous night—the great features of the convention, the reading of the platform and the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency, were over.

Sulzer was the first vice presidential candidate to appear in the hall, and his appearance seemed to excite little interest.

At 10:45 Chairman Richardson advanced to the front of the platform, a great bouquet of sweet peas in his hand, and with a sweep of the gavel cut off the strains of the band, slowly stilled the confusion and brought the convention to order for its third day's work.

Listened to Prayer.

Then the great audience arose while Rev. Rabbi Mayer of Kansas City delivered a prayer breathing the sense of responsibility resting upon the convention. Immediately following the prayer the call of states began for the purpose of making nominations for the vice presidency.

Great confusion prevailed and very few of the delegates were aware of what was going on until Alabama and but that state gave way to Minnesota, amid cheers and cries of "Towne." L. A. Roessing of Minnesota then took the platform and presented the name of Charles A. Towne of his state. When he pronounced the name of Towne, there was cheering from the Minnesota delegation, which arose to its feet waving flags in frantic faction. The galleries joined in the applause with fervor, but there was less enthusiasm among the men on the floor, who had the votes.

A stout woman in the northwest corner of the first gallery climbed upon a chair, holding in her left hand a colored lithograph of Bryan and Towne, while with her right she waved a handkerchief vigorously. Congressman Shafroth of Colorado, a zealous supporter of the candidacy of Mr. Towne, climbed into the gallery in an effort to get the woman forward to the platform, but she declined to come.

While the galleries were enthusing over Mr. Towne there was an excited little group about the chair of ex-Senator Hill. In it was Croker. "You must take the nomination and save the day," said Edward Murphy excitedly.

"I can not, I can not," replied Hill. "I do not want it."

"You must take it," said Croker, leaning over him, while Norman E. Mack and Frank Campbell held Hill, one on each side, and urged him to accept.

Even after Chairman Richardson had recognized Governor Thomas of Colorado to second the nomination of Mr. Towne, not a word of his speech could be heard by either the delegates or the people in the galleries.

Finally, after Governor Thomas had been speaking for a minute or more, former Senator White went to the stand, and in a ringing voice warned the convention if order were not restored, he would move that the galleries be cleared.

When the state of Delaware was called, the announcement was made that the state would yield to New York. Then the result of the Hill conference became apparent.

Grady Names Hill.

A tremendous shout of applause swept through the hall. Delegate Grady, one of the leaders of Tammany Hall, had already ascended the platform, and as he stepped to the front to address the convention the applause and cheering increased.

His first sentence rang through the great building in trumpet tones: "On behalf of the Democracy of New York I present to this convention for the nomination to the vice presidency the name of David Bennett Hill."

The effect was electrical. His words set the convention in a frenzy of enthusiasm. The scene which followed was by far the most tempestuous of the session, and calls for Hill re-echoed and re-echoed through the hall. State standards were seized and held aloft and the convention was canopied with fluttering flags and handkerchiefs. Delegates and spectators cheered and the great structure fairly shook with the noise when the galleries became infected with the enthusiasm.

Governor Hill meantime had worked his way through the surging multitude to the platform. As he ascended it his hands were eagerly grasped, and he was escorted to the seat of the permanent chairman. He asked Mr. Grady to yield to him that he might make a statement, but Grady declined.

When, finally Mr. Grady was permitted to proceed, he said that Governor Hill might decline, but decline or not, he shouted, New York's united 72 votes will be cast to the end for David Bennett Hill.

Judge Van Wyck kept urging him to accept, and not make a declination. Hill was obdurate. While Grady was speaking Hill asked to see Senator Jones, and when the chairman of the national committee came, the ex-Senator said to him: "Jones, stop this thing. It is not wise. It should not be forced upon me. Help me stop it."

Chairman Jones said: "I will help you. Go on and decline, and I'll help you out."

Then Senator Hill advanced to the platform. He stood with bowed head a few minutes, expressive of gratitude for the cheers that rolled in heavy volume toward him from every part of the hall, and when finally there was a chance of his voice being heard, he said:

Hill's Speech.

"Mr. President and Gentlemen—While I greatly appreciate the action of the delegation from New York, it is proper for me to say that it is without my approval. (Cries of 'No, no.') I appreciate also the manifestations of friendliness on the part of the delegates from other states, but I feel that it is my duty to rise here and now say to you that, for personal reasons, and good valid reasons, I can not accept this nomination. (Great applause and cries of 'No, no,' and 'You've got to take it.') I have not been a candidate,

I do not desire to be a candidate, and I must not be nominated by this convention. (Renewed applause and cheering and cries of 'You must, you must.') There are gentlemen whose names have been presented to this convention, any one of whose names is stronger than my own. (Cries of 'No, no.') There is no difficulty whatever in making a satisfactory choice, and I ought not in justice to them permit my name to be used a single moment further, and this convention should proceed to nominate a candidate from one of those who have been named. In justice to me, in justice to them, in justice to the party, in justice to the ordinary procedure of this convention, it is unfair to me to place me in this position without my consent. (Great applause.)

Hill left the platform cheered to the echo and surrounded by his friends, who pressed forward to grasp his hand.

Georgia was called, Mr. Hutchison of that state seconded the nomination of Stevenson from Illinois. Other seconding speeches were made.

When Idaho was called she gave way to Washington, and W. H. Dunphy placed in nomination the name of James Hamilton Lewis of Washington.

Delegate E. H. McCabe of Louisiana announced from his seat that the delegation from Louisiana unanimously seconded the nomination of that "gifted leader and statesman, David B. Hill of New York."

Delegate A. Leo Knott of Maryland, formerly an assistant postmaster general, presented in a brief speech the name of Governor John Walter Smith of Maryland.

When the state of Massachusetts was called, Hon. George Fred Williams the platform amid loud applause. In the course of his address, which was delivered in clarion tones, he paid a handsome compliment to the state of New York, which he declared was united for the platform. For this reason no state in the Union was entitled to greater consideration than New York. This was received with a shout of approval, the belief becoming in some manner prevalent that Mr. Williams was about to second Hill's nomination. "The name which seems most desirable in the interests of the party," Mr. Williams declared: "In connection with the vice presidential nomination is that of a man who is intellectually and morally the peer of the candidate for the first place, Charles A. Towne."

Governor Stone of Missouri seconded Stevenson. Nebraska passed in the call, saying they had nobody to present. Newlands of Nevada seconded Towne and Daly of New Jersey seconded Hill.

The convention was becoming impatient over the long list of seconding speeches, and there were frequently calls of "time."

Senator White of California spoke energetically from the platform, declaring that those who did not desire to hear the nominating speeches could go out. If they did not care to go out they should keep quiet.

S. M. Gates, a son of North Carolina, presented the name of Colonel Julian Carr from his state. He spoke briefly and escaped the usual reminder conveyed in the call of "time."

Ohio's Favorite Son.

Ohio put in nomination the name of A. W. Patrick of the Buckeye state. His name was presented by M. A. Daugherty, who was one of the few speakers whose seconding speech could be heard at any distance from the platform.

Just prior to the ballot Mr. Lewis withdrew his name.

Stevenson received 559½ votes on the first ballot. When it became evident that the Illinois man was nominated the states tumbled over each other in their efforts to record their votes for Stevenson. Great confusion existed. North Carolina changed to Stevenson, Tennessee changed her 24 votes from Hill to Stevenson, and Alabama also changed to Stevenson.

Tillman of South Carolina moved to make the nomination of Stevenson unanimous, and the chair put the question. It prevailed. A large proportion of the delegates quickly left the hall. The vote is given below.

The vote of the three leading candidates was as follows: Stevenson, 559½; Hill, 200; Towne, 122½.

While the changes of the various states were being made pandemonium reigned in the hall.

The Ohio delegation cast its vote for Patrick for vice president.

Vote For Vice President.

Alabama, 3 for Stevenson and 19 for Hill; Arkansas, Towne 5, Stevenson 11; California, Stevenson 15, Towne 3; Colorado, Stevenson 8; Connecticut, Stevenson 9; Town 3; Delaware, Stevenson 4; Hill 2; Florida, Stevenson 4; Hill 4; Georgia, Stevenson 26; Idaho, Hill 3, Towne 3; Illinois, Stevenson 48; Indiana, Stevenson 28, Towne 2; Iowa, Stevenson 26; Kansas, Stevenson 20;

It is understood definitely that Chairman Jones is to be re-elected as the head of the national committee.

A resolution was passed congratulating Kansas City upon the fine convention building.

In spite of the failure to insert the income tax plank in the original draft of the platform, the convention ended, and no action to insert plank was possible.

The national committee is authorized to fill all the places that are vacant on the committee or ticket.

At 3:21 p. m. the convention adjourned sine die.

Bryan Serenaded.

Lincoln, Neb., July 6.—Chief interest in Lincoln in the Kansas City convention is as to when it will conclude, for, with the final adjournment, it is believed the crowd will naturally drift to Lincoln. The local demonstration in honor of Mr. Bryan reached respectable proportions after midnight, when a marching party formed, and with bands paraded to the Bryan home and serenaded the presidential nominee. The Bryan telephone was kept ringing late into the night by friends, who wished to offer congratulations. Many telegrams from a distance were received.

Silver Republicans Nominate Bryan.

Kansas City, July 6.—The delegates to the Silver Republican convention were late in assembling. A white-headed delegate from Ohio started singing "John Brown's Body." One by one the delegates joined until the auditorium rang with the thunder of 1,000 voices. The committee on resolutions then announced it was ready to report, and D. C. Tillotson of Kansas took the platform to read the party's principles. Then Hon. W. J. Bryan was nominated for president and Towne for vice president.

Hanna and Roosevelt.

Cleveland, July 6.—Governor Roosevelt arrived here via the Lake Shore road from the west. He was met at the station by Elmer Dover, Senator Hanna's private secretary. The governor entered a carriage and was driven directly to the Hanna residence, where he spent the morning in conference with the chairman. Later Governor Roosevelt and Senator Hanna will go to Canton to visit the president.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., July 6.—American Petroleum Product company, Cleveland, increase from $50,000 to $100,000; Dunlap Light company, Canton, $20,000; Brookside Bowling company, Cleveland, $6,000; Dayton Tent, Knights of the Macabees, Dayton; Brotherhood of Licensed Steam Engineers of Ohio, Cleveland; Converse Manufacturing company, Cleveland, $10,000.

Message From German Emperor.

Canton, O., July 6.—The following cablegram was received by President McKinley: "Rensburg, July 6.—For your excellency's warm words of condolence in the murder of my representative in Peking, I express my most sincere thanks. I recognize therein the common impulse of interests which binds the civilized nations together.—William, Emperor, King."

Boers Repulsed.

Maseru, Basutoland, July 6.—The Boers made a determined attempt to retake Ficksburg, Orange River colony. They attacked the place at midnight. The fighting was short but fierce, lasting an hour, when the Federals were repulsed.

Both Killed.

Tucson, A. T., July 6.—Antonio Soso and Jose E. Vasquez, two prominent Mexican cattlemen, quarrelled over a cattle brand in San Pedro valley, and both men were killed in a fight with guns.

Death of an Actor.

London, July 6.—Franklin McLeary, the Canadian actor, died of brain fever.

IS LIABLE TO SPREAD.

Consul General Goodnow Sends a Note of Warning From China.

THE DANGER OF A GENERAL REVOLT.

It Is Believed Miss Mary Smith, a Sister-in-Law of Governor General Wood of Cuba Is Among Peking Victims.

London, July 6.—The danger of a general revolt in China becomes more and more patent and Europe is being confronted with a rapidly increasing fear, not merely that the international column will be forced from Tien Tsin, but that the international troops at the colonies and territory ports will stand in grave danger of expulsion.

In view of the fact that the previous assurances of the viceroys have proved untrustworthy, their promises of protection for the whites are hardly convincing. In the meanwhile the hitherto unconquerable jealousies of the European powers stay the hands of Japan, though it is hoped an understanding will soon be reached. The foreign office here has received official dispatches from Tokio that the Japanese government informed the foreign offices that in addition to the forces already landed in China, Japan has 20,000 troops mobilized and ready for action at a moment's notice, when she receives the mandate of the powers.

Great Britain is now awaiting answers from the chancelleries to its proposals. The British cabinet held a long meeting under the presidency of Lord Salisbury, and finally considered the crisis.

Tragedy at Peking.

London, July 6.—There is a mass of wild rumor from the far east. Though so contradictory on most points, it continues unanimous as to the consummation of the tragedy at Peking. To consistent reports of the massacre of the whites are now added the additional horrors that soldiery at the capital killed 5,000 natives, Roman Catholic converts. This comes in a Shanghai dispatch of July 5, which only adds to the reports given by respectable Chinese who have arrived from Chian Fu, and who describe Peking as an inferno, the streets literally running with blood. They confirm numerous stories of executions and untold tortures of the isolated foreigners. Some European soldiers were captured by a mob. Yung Lu, who advocated moderation, was killed by Tuan-Tang-Yi and Tang Fuh Sian, who issued fresh edicts ordering the merciless extermination of all foreigners in the empire.

Miss Smith's Sad Fate.

New York, July 6.—According to Mr. Tyson, secretary of Cyrus Field Judson of this city, Miss Mary Condit Smith, a sister-in-law of Mr. Judson, has been killed in a Peking massacre. Mr. Tyson said that Mr. Judson had made frequent inquiries at the state department in Washington to learn whether or not Miss Smith was safe, and had received a reply to the effect that there was no hope for her safety, as it was believed that all foreigners had been massacred, their heads cut off, stuck on the ends of long poles and paraded through the streets. Miss Smith had for some time been a guest of Minister Conger and had been traveling with her sister, the wife of Lieutenant Key, now stationed at Tokio, Japan. The wife of Governor General Leonard Wood of Havana is also a sister of Miss Smith.

Sounds a Warning.

Washington, July 6.—A dispatch has been received at the state department from Consul General Goodnow at Shanghai. It is dated July 5, in which he states the situation is serious and the insurrectionary movement is extending. If the allied forces in the north, he says, should meet with reverses, the disturbance certainly will extend to central and to south China, resulting in the expulsion and murder of foreigners interior and the ruin of trade. A strong force, he says, is necessary to check the viceroys in the north and to support the viceroys in the south. It is understood that the consuls of all the powers in China have sent an identical dispatch to their respective governments.

Tien Tsin, July 6.—Those best informed in Tien Tsin consider the position of foreigners in Peking as almost hopeless. It is hopeless to attempt to enforce the way with the force available. Commanders are willing to resort to desperate means, but to attempt a forced march from Tien Tsin with the forces at hand means certain destruction to the army.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON.

Arkansas had been passed, and California was called, then the doughty face of former Senator White emerged from the Californians, and in a loud voice he demanded to know what was going on, and that the aisles be cleared of the disorderly intruders.

When the chairman responded that California was being called for nominations, Senator White announced that California yielded to Arkansas. And Arkansas yields to Illinois, shouted Jeff Davis, the Democratic candidate for governor of Arkansas, standing on a chair and receiving a cheer for his mention of Stevenson.

Now all business was suspended, as the confusion had become so overpowering that the call of the secretaries was inaudible above the roar. The police and sergeants-at-arms struggled vainly to dispossess the mob, which was now well nigh in control of the floor.

Stevenson's Name Presented.

It took 15 minutes to restore some semblance of order, and then the spokesman for Illinois, Representative James Williams, presented the name of Stevenson.

Mr. Williams spoke rapidly and briefly, and at his mention of Adlai E. Stevenson, Illinois was on its feet cheering wildly. Kansas was up as was Alabama, Arkansas, Minnesota and a large number of delegates in different parts of the hall. The applause while vigorous was short, not lasting above a minute.

It's a splendid ticket and a splendid platform.

Now let the Democrats get together and rally round Bryan and Stevenson.

A man who rarely ever enters a church is not very well qualified to discuss foreign missions or any other religious topic.

HON. HOKE SMITH, Grover Cleveland's Secretary of the Interior, says he will support the candidates nominated by the Kansas City convention. All right, Mr. Smith. It's never too late to do good.

The Ledger editor is everlastingly after the preachers for meddling with secular affairs. He does not hesitate, however, to meddle with religious affairs. What he doesn't know about missions would fill a great big book, if printed.

The magnificent outburst of true American anti-imperialism that from end to end of the country greets your nomination gives sure promise of your triumphant election. As an old friend and fellow-townsmen and a Republican of the school of Lincoln and of Blaine, I tender you my most cordial congratulations and the promise of my most earnest support.

PATRICK EGAN,
Ex-Minister to Chile.

The above is one of the many telegrams received Friday by Bryan. Webster Davis, who resigned as Assistant Secretary of the Interior under McKinley a few months ago, said, in his speech at the Kansas City convention renouncing the Republican party, that the Democratic platform is one on which every true American can stand. And it can also be said that the nominees are men for whom every true American can vote.

GUBERNATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Governor will be held in Lexington Thursday, July 19th.

Monday, July 16th, at 2 p. m., county conventions will be held in every county in the State for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State convention to be held in Lexington.

Saturday, July 14th, at 2 p. m., precinct conventions will be held at every voting place in the State for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county conventions to be held Monday, July 16th.

Every Democrat in Kentucky is urged to remember the date of these precinct conventions and attend.

WARNING FROM WALL STREET.

When a multi-millionaire of Wall street feels alarmed at present political condition and tries to arouse the people of the United States to a consciousness of the immense magnitude and far-reaching consequences of the issues to be decided in November the danger must be very grave. Mr. James R. Keene gave $40,000 to the McKinley campaign fund in 1896, and we may judge of his own view of his mistake on reading the following statement made by him to the New York correspondent of the Washington Post:

"The people of this country must arouse themselves. The coming election is of more importance, from the standpoint of a pure and true Americanism, than any that has transpired since the second election of Lincoln. Money is in the saddle; it is riding down the institutions of this country with a confident insolence that tells of its firm belief in its own invincibility. It is running the government to-day in its every branch and arm. If money's power in moulding public affairs goes forward for four years more as it has for four years past, the name of American liberty will only be worth a recollection as a matter of history. Money is pressing the people backward step by step. What is to be the end? If it goes on there are, as matters trend, but two solutions. One is socialism and the second is revolution. The American people must defend themselves from money, just as they guarded their forest frontiers from the savage. Unless they come solidly shoulder to shoulder for their rights, and come at once, Bunker Hill will have been a blunder, Yorktown a mistake."

COUNCIL No. 69, F. O. of A., will meet to-night at Cox Building. All companions asked to be present.

THE STATE ASSESSMENT.

The Grand Total Equalized Value of Property Amounts to Over $500,000,000—Other Figures.

The grand total value of all property in Kentucky as equalized is $574,867,964, an increase over the work of the assessors of $11,529,278. The total equalized value of lands is $251,850,226, an increase over last year of $317,583. The total equalized value of town lots is $197,550,431, an increase over last year of $1,401,321. The total assessed value of bonds is $60,616,376, an increase over last year of $6,018,272. The total equalized value of live stock is $64,950,931, an increase of $3,902,101. The total assessed value of personalty subject to equalization is $99,776,007, and the total equalized value, after deducting exemptions, is $64,850,931.

The cash in banks is $8,773,308; the number of diamonds only 1,388, valued at $218,403; the value of watches $674,000, and of other jewelry $80,619.

The number of acres of land in the State, according to the report of the State Board, is 23,923,375. It was assessed by local assessors at $243,388,924, but the State Board valued it at $251,850,226. The value of agricultural products for taxation, after deducting the value of crops grown within the year and in the hands of producers, is placed at $450,818. There was being cultivated at the time of assessment last fall 888,961 acres of wheat, 229,703 acres of tobacco and 1,925,257 acres of corn.

The total value of property assessed in the State, $574,867,964, will produce $2,730,622 in taxes at 47½ cents on the $100, which is the rate this year, instead of 52½ cents, which had been collected for the past three years.

Owing to the failure of County Assessors to make the assessment about $12,000,000 worth of stock in National banks escaped taxation this year, the decision of the Supreme Court making it the duty of the owner of the stock to list it for taxation. It is likely a number of Assessors failed to obey the law.

The total assessed value of property this year is slightly larger than last year, but the tax income will be $226,000 because of the 5-cent reduction in the tax rate.

THE MOB SPIRIT.

An Indiana Paper Dishes Out "a Hot Roast" For Governor Mount, Taylor's Special Friend.

[Indianapolis Sentinel.]

It is a noteworthy fact that the Republican papers that have been defending Gov. Mount for his unlawful refusal to surrender the Kentucky criminals for trial have now dropped all pretense of the legality of his action, and are asserting that he reached a "righteous" decision in defiance of the provisions of the law. We wish to call attention to the fact that this is exactly the basis of mob law, which Gov. Mount has made some pretense of trying to stop. The theory of the lyncher is that a certain man ought to be tarred and feathered, or whipped, or hanged, or burned at the stake, and for fear that it might not be done by due process of law he and his associates get together and administer the punishment without trial. Turning the same logic end for end, Gov. Mount assumes that a man should not be punished according to law, and proceeds by an abuse of power to prevent his trial. He assumes the functions of Judge and jury. He not only asserts the innocence of the indicted men, but also the guilt of a whole community. He assumes the corruption and moral degradation of courts and officers of all kinds. He makes the monstrous supposition that the murdered man's brother desires to convict innocent men of the assassination, instead of guilty ones. He outrages all reason as well as the law. And his supporters are in the same condition. Here is an effort, for example, from that hotbed of Republican crime, Hendricks County:

"Gov. Mount stands closer to-day to the people who love justice than he ever did. His refusal to honor the requisition for Mr. Taylor shows that he is a man with a commendable quality of backbone. To allow Taylor to be taken back to be tried on evidence secured by the $100,000 reward would be simply to surrender him to legal assassination."

Why? If Taylor is guilty what difference does it make that a reward is offered for his conviction? Is a reward for conviction of a criminal a new thing? There are hundreds of cases of it every year. But a short time ago the negro murderer, Ruthven, was returned from here to Ohio, where $1,000 had been offered for his return. Why did not Mount object to that? There is certainly no reason why a large reward should not be offered when the Chief Executive of a State is assassinated, and assassinated under such circumstances that the knowledge of the details of the crime must be confined to those who participated in it. Such excuses will not wear. Gov. Mount and his lawless supporters are defeating their own end. Every day adds to the number of those who are convinced of the guilt of Taylor and Finley. They act likely guilty men. It is conscience that makes cowards of us all, and the knowledge of crime on their souls is what makes them afraid to face their accusers and stand their trials. Innocent men very seldom run away from criminal charges, and they never do when they have friends and money and counsel. Occasionally some timid soul who imagines himself friendless and alone slips away in the night and goes into hiding, but that is not this case. These men are daily giving testimony against themselves before the bar of public sentiment that is as strong as that of their associates and allies who have confessed in Kentucky. The lynch law theory never helps a bad cause.

CLAY IMAGES

Of Men, Dogs, Insects, Turtles and Snakes Are Worshipped.

[Exchange.]

The effete religious systems and idolatrous practices of China represent an annual expenditure of $400,000,000. There are 4,000,000 deities, 300,000 temples. Some temples are served by a hundred priests. These men are illiterate and often from the very scum of society. About 70,000 pigs, rabbits, sheep and deer, and 27,000 pieces of costly silk are annually offered at the sacrifices.

They worship clay images of men, dogs, turtles, snakes, lizards and insects. The people live in dread of evil spirits, which are supposed to cause disease and calamity. They propitiate the evil spirits rather than pray to the good, having a belief in the cruelty and heartlessness of the gods.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

SHIRT WAISTS.

It is said the shirt waist has come to stay. It's certainly not the case with these. Their daintiness, newness and attractiveness will soon scatter them. Cool to wear, refreshing to see, giving a woman a certain chicness and charm that makes her good to look upon. Made of white lawn. $1 to $5.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Especially in demand at this season. Made of carefully selected materials. Neat sewing with the good taste of home-done work all the way through. Corset Covers, 9c. to $1. Skirts, $2.75, $4.50. Drawers, 25c. to $2.50. Gowns, 50c. to $5.

No unsightly stains on underwear is possible with the cork protection in these best of corsets. Three qualities, $1, $1.25, $1.50.

LACES.

The lace department is full of helpfulness for the summer sewing. Begin with the pretty val edges at 18c, 25c, 35c, a dozen up to the finer laces at 50c. a yard and you will find in all daintiness and durability.

SAY!

WHAT?

WHITE, JUDD & CO. SELLING OUT!

I CAN'T BELIEVE IT.

It's true all the same. G. S. Judd sold out to Mr. White and went West. J. F. Martin then sold out to Mr. White and now Mr. White sees that he cannot see well enough to conduct the business, so he has decided to close out his large and elegant stock of Furniture at cost. No 10 per cent. cut plan but at COST.

IF YOU NEED ANYTHING IN THE FURNITURE LINE NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE IT CHEAP.

And if you don't need it just now it will pay you to buy at the cut prices for future use. Come and look through our stock and be convinced.

C. H. WHITE.

Mr. White went to Cincinnati a few days ago to have his eyes operated on, but his physician concluded it was not advisable at present, so he has decided to sell out and quit business.

He will sell any or all the houses he owns in Maysville—some at cost and some below cost, and on from one to five years' time, deferred payments to bear 5 per cent. interest.

The Bee Hive

Our policy is to make this a busy, instead of the usual dull summer month. Great reductions in seasonable goods will be found throughout our entire large stock. We mention the Ladies' and Children's Straw Sailors as an instance. Hats that were marked 69c. and 75c. are reduced to 45c. The 59c. kind are now 39c. and those that were 49c. and 39c. are ridiculously priced—as low as 25c. It's a great chance if you or yours needs a sailor.

GREAT BARGAINS IN MEN'S SUMMER SHIRTS

This is the season that perspiring man looks for comfort in the way of Shirts. We can help him along for but little cost. Mark these two special leaders:

Silk front Negligee Shirts, splendid washable fabrics, sold elsewhere at 75c. and $1, are priced here at . . . . . 50c
Bedford Cord Soft Shirts, decidedly cool, comfortable and durable, worth fully 75c., for this week only, . . . . . 39c

A WONDERFUL SEASON FOR LAWNS

We would not like to State the number of yards of Lawn we have already sold this season. You'd think we were exaggerating, and still the rush for lawns continues, and new ones reach us every week. Several more cases on the road now. A very recent arrival is a fine figured Dimity that should sell for 20c., but marked here at 15c. Prices on Lawns range from 4c. to 50c., advancing by easy stages. Our stock is still large and select.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. ### MAYSLICK.

The farmers are busy threshing wheat. Ed. Tammie is seriously ill with dropsy. Mr. Hukill, of Paris, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Davis. Mrs. Benz was visiting relatives in Millersburg and Paris the past week. The infant son of Eugene Robinson died of cholera infantum, July 3rd. A Sunday school picnic held in Mrs. Wilson's woods Saturday, was enjoyed by the little folks. Minnie, daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Jefferson, badly sprained her wrist, falling from a cherry tree last week. The surveyors are here this week surveying the route for the proposed railroad to pass through this section. The mail carriers exchanged hands this week. Harrison Divine resigned. Andrew Jordan, colored, appointed in his place.

GERMANTOWN.

Miss Irene Hudson is visiting in Augusta. Mrs. T. F. Tyler is improving after a six weeks' illness. Miss Ida Walton, of Covington, is visiting her mother. The church social was not a success on account of the weather. The infant of Bob Dimmitt is seriously ill with cholera infantum. The aged mother of Beryl Bass died Monday, July 3rd, of old age. The infant of Joe Pollock died and was buried Tuesday in our cemetery. E. A. Griffith is home for a short time from his tour in West Virginia. Bessie, the wife of Hal Commodore, colored, died July 2nd and was buried on the 3rd. Mr. John M. Walton, an old and highly respected citizen, died Sunday afternoon, July 1st, at 2 o'clock and was buried Wednesday. One of the prettiest social events of the season was the tacky party given by Mrs. J. E. Thompson on Thursday night, June 28th, in honor of her niece, Irene Hudson, of Verona, Ky. The beautiful lawn was decorated with evergreens and Japanese lanterns. There were about sixteen couples present and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much. About 10 o'clock an excellent supper was served, to the delight of all. It was after midnight before each one left for his or her home, wishing another tacky party would occur soon.

SHELLROCK.

Everything is growing nicely. The Sunday school at Plumville is in a prosperous condition. The writer and his wife are visiting friends near South Ripley for a day two. Miss Mamie Dabonport has returned home after a weeks visit with relatives and friends at Mt. Gilead. John Bradford and wife, of the Sixth ward, Maysville, are spending a few weeks with E. C. Day and family. We would advise the school taxpayers in No. 36 to pay their taxes to Constable Tolle. A word to the wise is sufficient. The Methodists over at Orangeburg are building a new church. They were hauling building material from Maysville last Saturday.

John Thompson, of Lockland, Ohio, visited his mother, Mrs. Elsie Colburn, last Sunday. Little Miss Nellie returned home with him to stay a few weeks.

Rev. T. J. Bowman, the pastor, has secured the services of the Rev. Mr. Riley, an eloquent young man of Ripley, to dedicate the church at Plumville, the third Sunday in the present month. Arrangements have been made to have good music. Come.

The Christian Church at Plumville will be dedicated on the 15th of July, that being the third Sunday in the month. Rev. Mr. Riley, of the Southern Ohio Conference, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A number of visitors have been invited and will be present to assist in the services. It is proposed that everybody bring their dinners with them and make it an old-fashioned basket dinner and all day service. Let the cooks take the matter in hand and it will be a day long to be remembered by all. Don't forget the time. Come one and all.

ELDER W. D. RICE, formerly of Tuckahoe, has resigned at the Linden street Church, Memphis. His present address is Mammoth Cave, Ky.

GREATEST EXTANT.

Nothing Equal to the Thrilling Congress of Rough Riders—People of All Races in an Exhibition That Cannot Be Equaled.

An event of importance of the year is the visit to Maysville on July 18 of the renowned Buckskin Bill with his peerless troupe of men of all nations, especially of the pioneers of the West and the tribes of Indians that are fast fading into history as one of the most interesting of primeval Americans.

His great wild west includes Indians, cowboys, Mexicans, Cossacks from Russia, Gauchos from South America, Arabs from the Great Desert, and cavalry of the United States, Germany, France and England. In addition there is a battery of artillery, with cannon, carriages and other paraphernalia, and three bands, including the celebrated Harry Greigler cowboy band.

The young ladies of the plains, in their remarkable riding and shooting, are a great novelty and win much applause wherever they are seen.

The military tournament brings into play the cavalry of many nations, including our own boys in blue, the English, French, German and Mexican cavalry, as well as Indians and cowboys, enabling the spectator to compare them and judge of their respective abilities as horsemen and fighters.

There is nothing about the exhibition that is not entertaining in the extreme to everybody, and the promises are for one of the largest crowds that ever gathered in Maysville to witness the performance.

The grand cavalcade will start promptly at 10 on the day of Buckskin Bill's arrival. In it will be innumerable horses, Indians, Mexicans, cowboys, soldiers, with three bands. It will be worth coming miles to see. Excursions will be run on all lines from all directions and Maysville will entertain them all in her usual hospitable style.

Don't Be Blind To Facts You Should Know

The Testing of the Eyes by a competent Optician is not a matter of guess work, nor is it a matter of trying on glasses promiscuously, but it is a science governed by principles which none but a person who has studied the science of Optics can understand. We have, with years of experience and close application to properly fitting of glasses to the sight, acquired the knowledge of knowing how, a fact which certainly gives us a great advantage.

Come and let us examine your eyes and we will advise you regarding the true condition of them.
